Tabby,
 I thought this time would never come but here it is.
 I am so glad you attended Calvary. You really added something special to our Senior Class.
 I pray that you always keep your heart on God and seek his will in your life. You

 "86" Remember Me,
 Randy

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all those things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:35, 37-39

1986 NIKE

The 1985-86 NIKE staff would like to introduce the name of our yearbook to you. Much thought was placed in the name of this book because we wanted to choose something special. Our school mascot is a conqueror and the Greek name for conqueror is nike which is pronounced (nee'-kay). This word means conquest, the means of success and victory. This is a statement of faith at Calvary Academy. We pray that the future of every student be filled with a Christian walk of success, conquests and total victory.

Across: Puppy love.
 Below: I don't care how good the Conquerors are, give me

 Come flooding from God's heart.

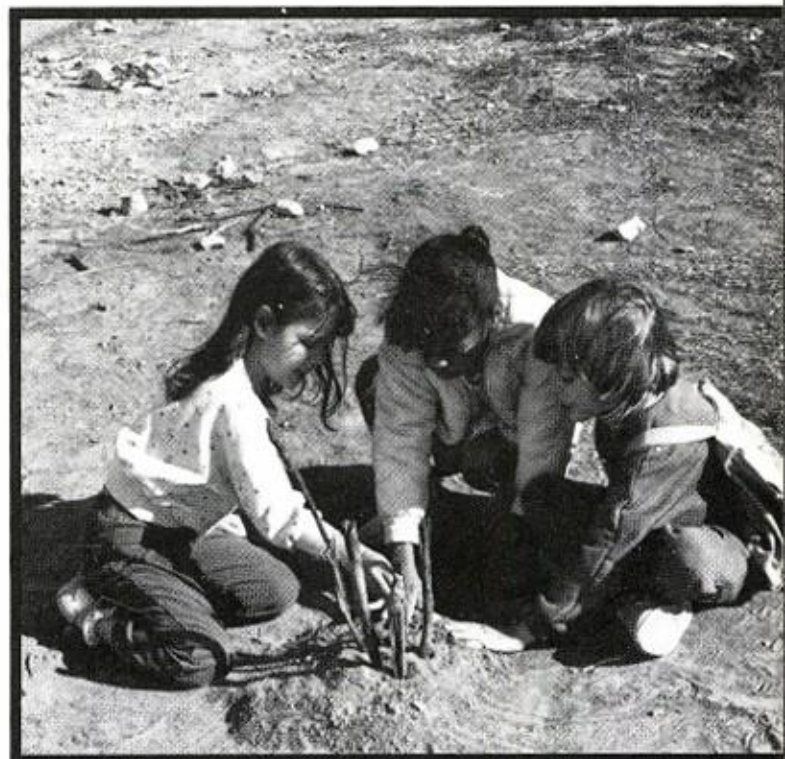

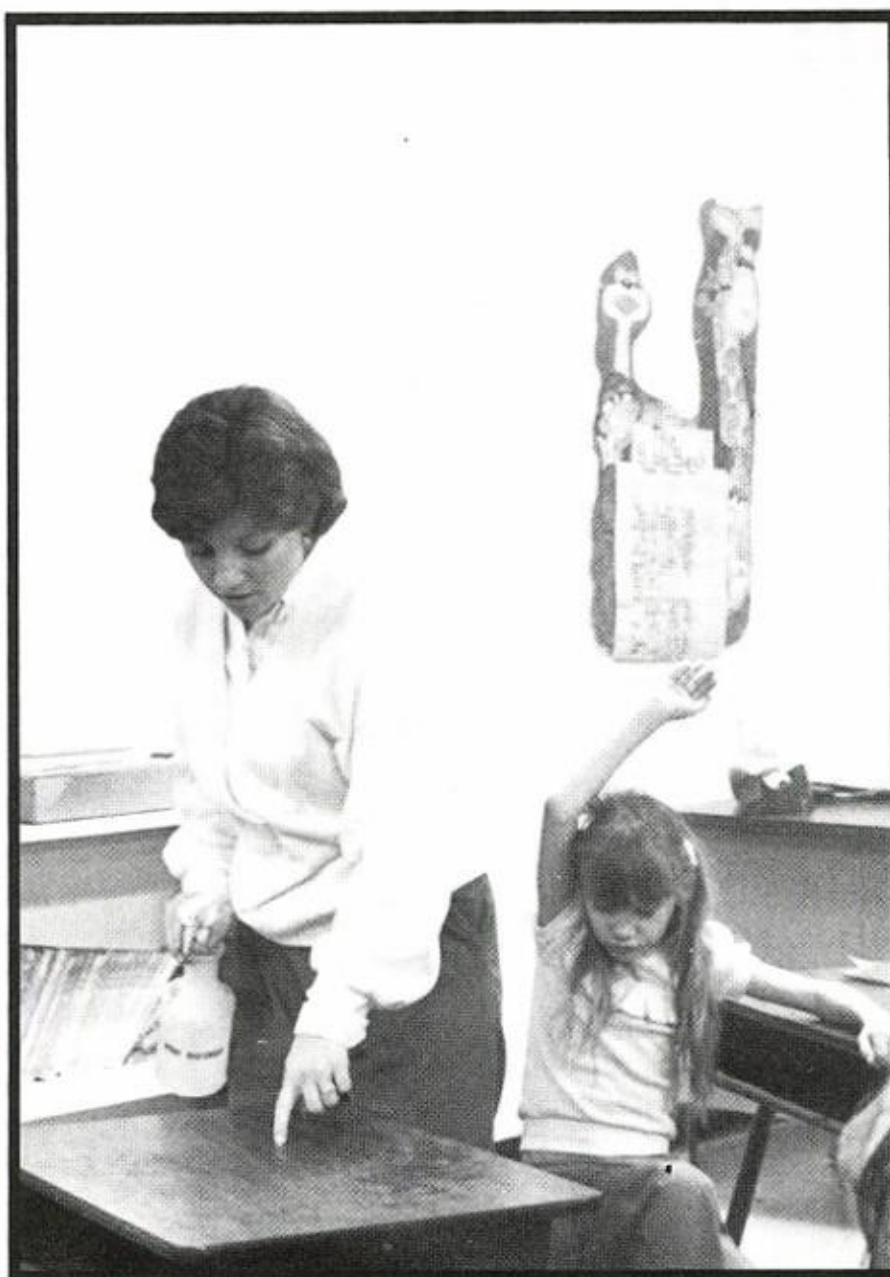

No excuse no one to blame
 No way to hide
 The eyes of God have found my failures
 Found my pain
 He understands my weaknesses
 And knows my shame
 But his heart never leaves me.

It's your kindness that leads us
 To repentance Oh Lord
 Knowing that You love us
 No matter what we do
 Makes us want to love You too.

If You are for us
 Who can be against us
 You gave us everything
 Even Your only Son.

Leadership

You've been tossing in your sleep over promises you made that you couldn't keep You're feeling sorry for yourself Thinking He's done with you, and you're on the shelf.

You're tired of running in the race.
Straying to and fro falling on your face.
So you want to throw your towel in.
But brother, before you do better think again.

Never say die. You've come too far to turn back now.
Give it one more try and He'll help
you through.
Never say die. We are weak, but He is strong and Strength He will supply when you ask Him to.

You went wrong you remember when.
Instead of pressing toward the mark, you missed it once again.
You think that you're the only one Who's ever come your way and done what you have done.

So you try to tuck your tail and run,
But then you realize you're back where you've begun.
Oh, can't you see Him waiting there for you
With arms wide open now, wanting to see you through.

Press on. Press on. Keep your hand upon the plow.
Press on. Press on. He'll lead you through somehow.

"Never Say Die"

Tabby...
I've enjoyed having you in Vocal Performance
this year!
You truly have a servant's heart and you've been a great blessing!
I pray you will always put Jesus first in all you do! He will never fail you! Best wishes for the rest of your life. I'll miss you next year!
I love you,
Mrs. Nichols

Some little darling either has a nosebleed or throws up all over the floor and you have to clean it up.

Kimme Nichols

People who used to call you by your first name have gotten used to calling you "Mr."

Tim Dersham

You know less than you did when you started.

Carlton Hildebrand

Your team is down 42-0 and you yell "Come back time" and all your players run off the field.

Coach Keith Gober

You've explained some difficult part and the majority of the class understands it and seems pleased.

Anna Mae Melton

You teach the small details of a subject.

Linda Gossett

You lay awake at night praying for creative ways to help teach and inspire your students.

Joan Gotcher

You shop at K-Mart!!!

Debbie Harned

You Know You're A Teacher When . . .

What Was Your Most Embarrassing Moment?

When showering at cheerleading camp, all of a sudden scalding hot water started coming out of the spout, and so I jumped out of the shower in front of all the other sponsors and cheerleaders!!!

Sue Godkin

When I have to sing and dance the Pythagorean Theorem because the students won't remember it!

Joan Howorth

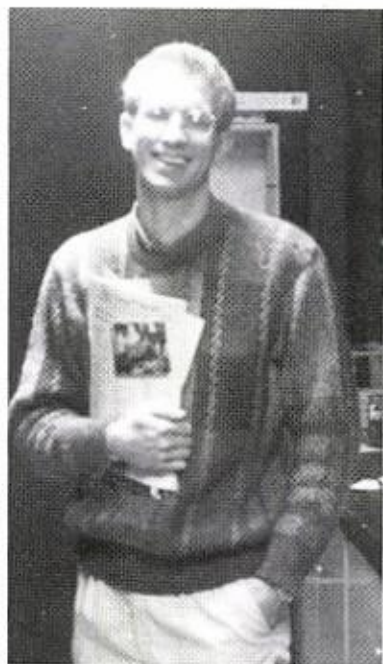

When I was speaking in church from the pulpit, and got off the subject. I started talking about traffic on the interstate, and before I realized it, I blurted out, "I hate it when you're on the interstate, and some old lady in front of you puts on her brakes every time anyone else in any other lane puts on theirs..." I caught myself, covered up my face, and said "Oooops!"

Coach Rick Callahan

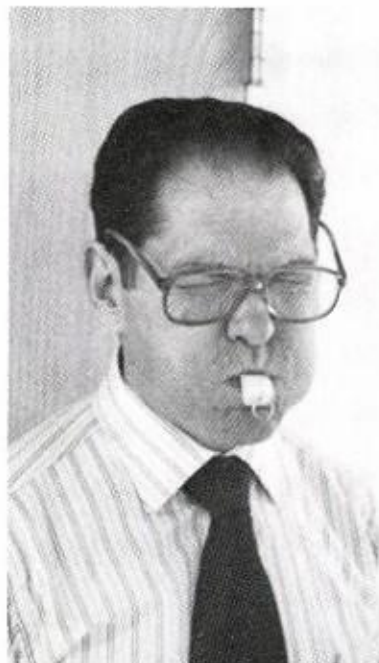

When lecturing, almost spitting on a student. It's amazing how far it can travel!

Jackie Bruford

When I realized that I had called Mr. Dixon, our Taylor Publishing Co. representative, "Mr. Taylor" because I heard some of the students call him that.

Bruce Ivers

When I walked out of the men's room of a bus station into a small crowd of women and a security guard, turned around and saw the word "Ladies" written above the door.

Bob Tinsley

Talking to a teacher about a student and finding out it was their child I was talking about.

Linda Lutz

One year on the first day of school while I was calling the roll for my eighth grade class, this cute, curly-headed little girl kept answering for a boy. I jumped all over her for her uncooperative attitude only to find that she was he!!!

This year's chapel services have been very special and memorable. David Albritton opened up the year with one of his always dynamic messages. In October, Ed Cole encouraged the young men of Calvary to be men of God rather than to give in to the pressures of the world. Along the way, Doug Kooy challenged us to turn our backs on the world's garbage and to serve God with our whole heart; Cindy Cantu of the Holy Ghost Repair Service inspired us with her testimony of how God can use young people as long as we're willing; and our very own Mr. Calvary, Todd Wilson, shared from his heart on being kind to one another. We trust and believe that Satan will not steal this good seed which has been planted on your hearts, and that your hearts will be good soil. We praise and thank God for a bountiful harvest.

The Nike' staff would like to acknowledge and recognize the parents of Calvary's students as leaders of our school. We would also like to thank you for your support in helping us finance this year's book; your contributions are much appreciated. We see this as merely a reflection of your support of Calvary Academy; in prayer, in kind and encouraging words, in faith, and in your other financial gifts. We're sure we speak for all of our teachers and staff when we wish you God's blessings.

This has been a year of changes and progress. The changes have been taken in stride, thanks to the cooperation of the faculty, students, and parents who have worked together for the good of our school. The progress has been in all aspects of the school life as we continue to grow, to expand, and to work toward our ultimate goal of the finest education for every student in our school. Education at Calvary Academy has several facets. We educate the mind, but we emphasize a Godly life style.

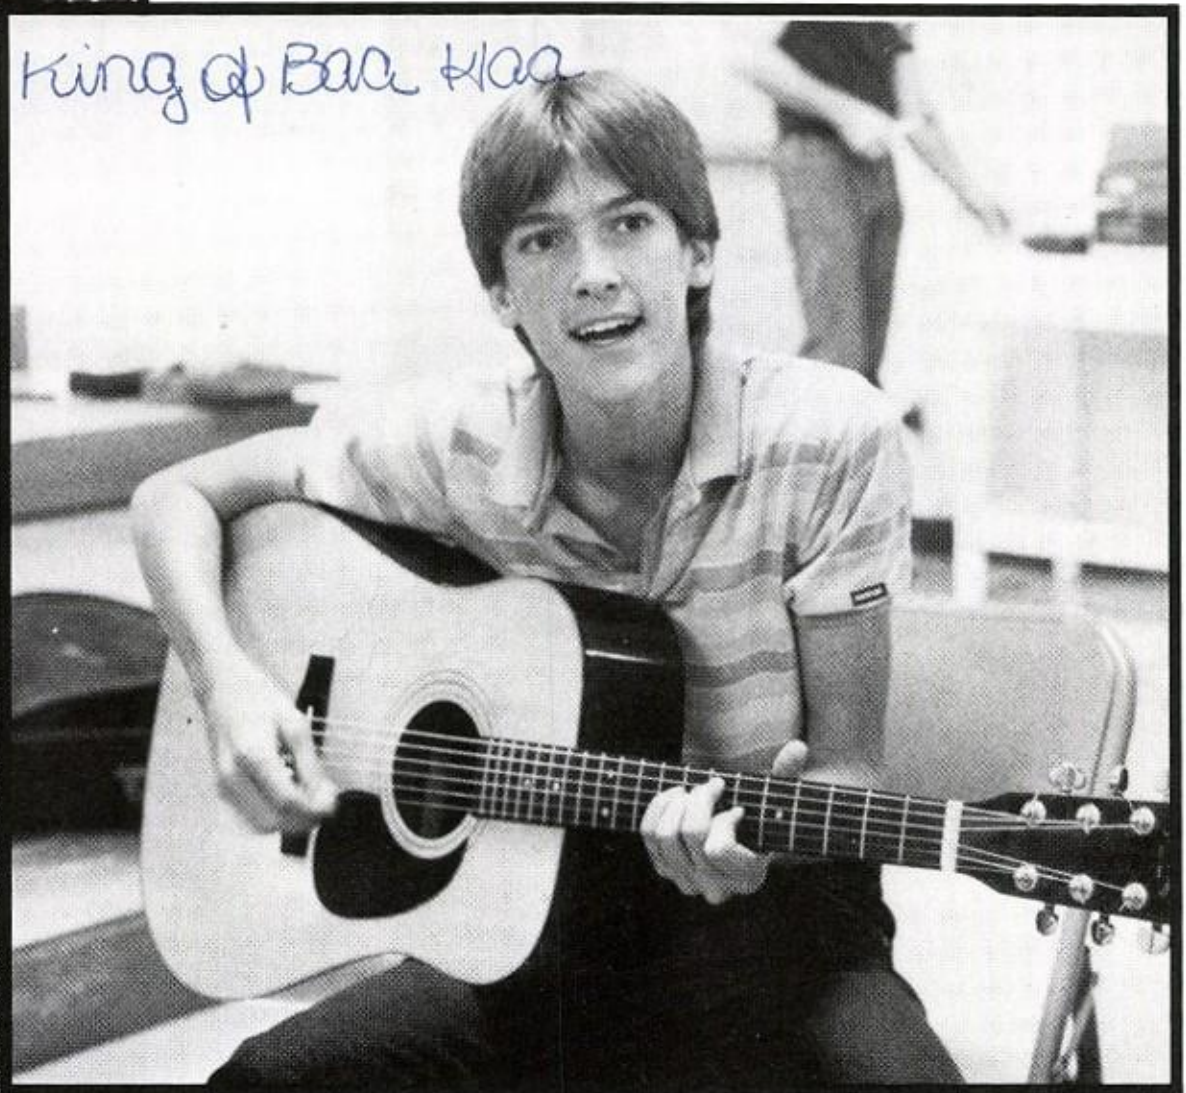

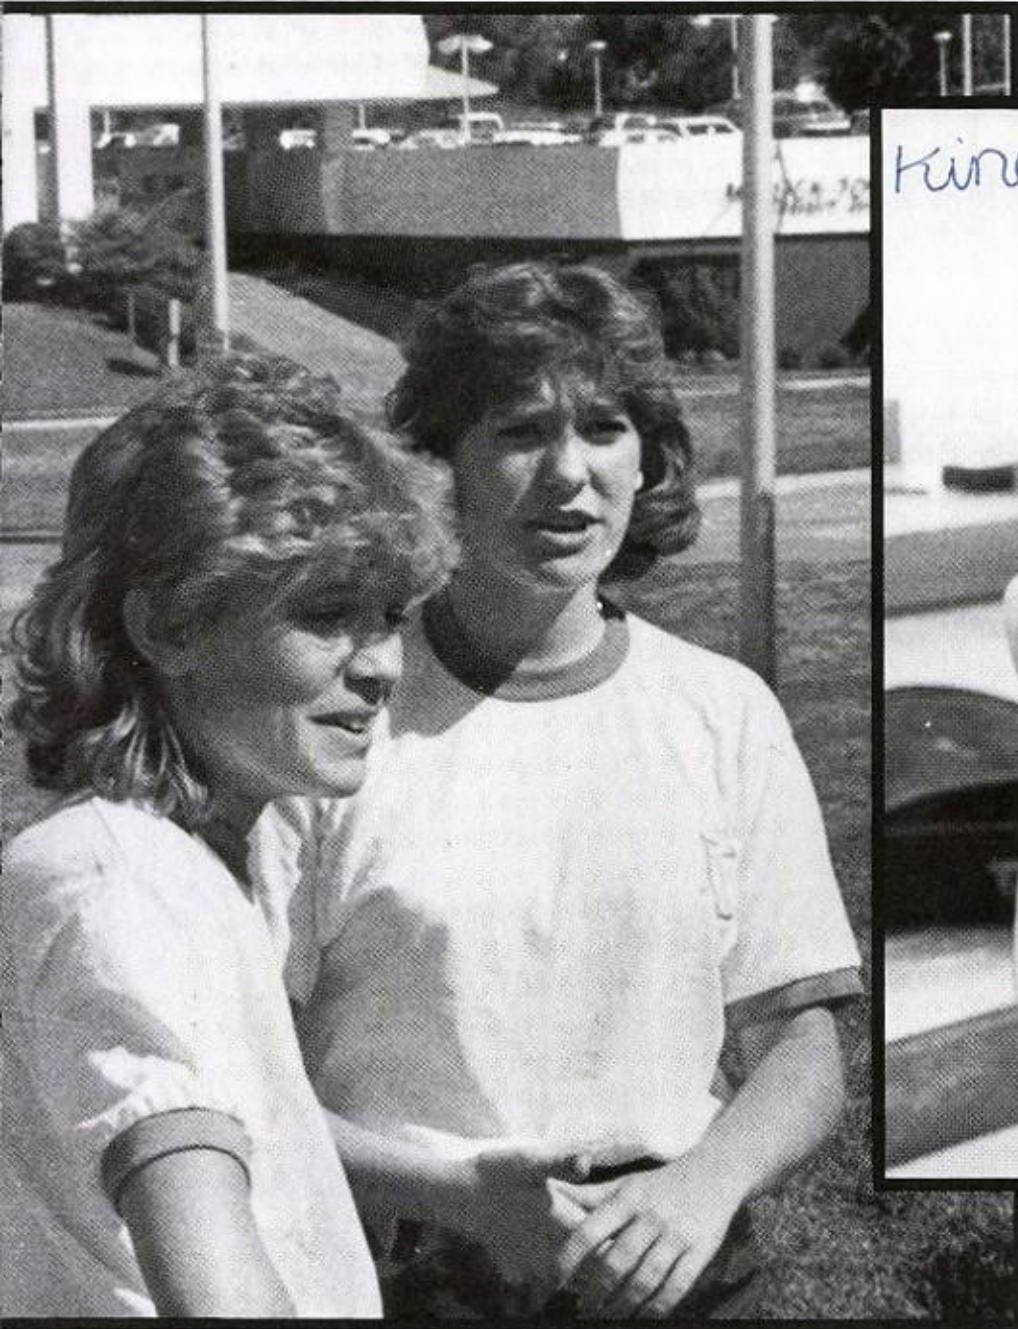

Without you, the parents, and your commitment to what we are doing here at Calvary Academy we could not have achieved the success we have to date. I truly believe that God has given us as fine a school you could find anywhere, but our future holds even more as we, together with God, covenant for an even better school. Thank you for all of your past labors and support. We have had a wonderful school year.

Your Servant,
 Sue Tidwell

Why do you buy what the world says it thinks you should be?
 Living your life through the pages of some magazine?
 Why try to have it all right now?
 Why leave behind what is real for store-bought, treasures?
 The dream's not true
 The dream won't last You're just building your life on illusions
 Those things will lie
 Those things will pass
 They will shatter like walls made of glass
 Not satisfied with the things that are placed in your hands Preoccupied with the fantasies of what you own?

 Why do you fall for the lie that "more is better?"

Jesus Is Glorified and Celebrated During the Christmas Season

December 9th was a beautiful evening filled with excitement, anticipation and wonder. The Kindergarten class sang like little angels. Then, the Elementary and Jr. High Choirs processed down the aisles of the sanctuary to the strains of "Adeste Fidelis." The combination of the beauty of it all and their anointed singing was overwhelming. The Vocal Performance Class blessed us with a medley of Traditional Christmas carols. As Jeff Hicks began to sing "White Christmas," snow began to fall, throughout the rest of the medley. As the evening came to a close, the choirs sang "Praising Jesus/Christmas is a Time for Being Thankful," causing the listener to realize that children really do know the real meaning of Christmas. Then, enthusiastically, they sang their finale . . . "Happy Birthday Baby Jesus." Their families and friends showed their appreciation with a standing ovation for the students and for Jesus, the one who made the whole evening possible.

Amy Haynes, a Senior, was our Homecoming Queen this year. "I was very surprised when they told me I was the Homecoming Queen, because I didn't expect it." Amy plans to go to Baylor University and study Computer Science. She plans to take some classes in Interior Decorating, and she wants to get a teaching certificate. "I would love to be a missionary in another country, and to teach women to decorate their homes, prepare healthy food for their families, and to minister the Word of God to people everywhere. Thank you for giving me the privilege to be this year's Homecoming Queen."

Kristi Wilson, our Freshmen representative and Varsity cheerleader says, "I feel very privileged to be on the Homecoming Court. I was very happy and surprised when I found out I had been chosen." Kristi plans to go to T.C.U. after she graduates.

Our Sophomore representative is Jennifer Knowles. She says, "I was very surprised, and I feel very privileged to have been chosen. I plan on going to college, and serving God in whatever He wants me to do."

Sara Browning, Varsity volleyball player, says, "I was very excited and very grateful to have been chosen by my classmates to be Junior representative." She plans on going to college and having a good career.

Cheryl & Clay

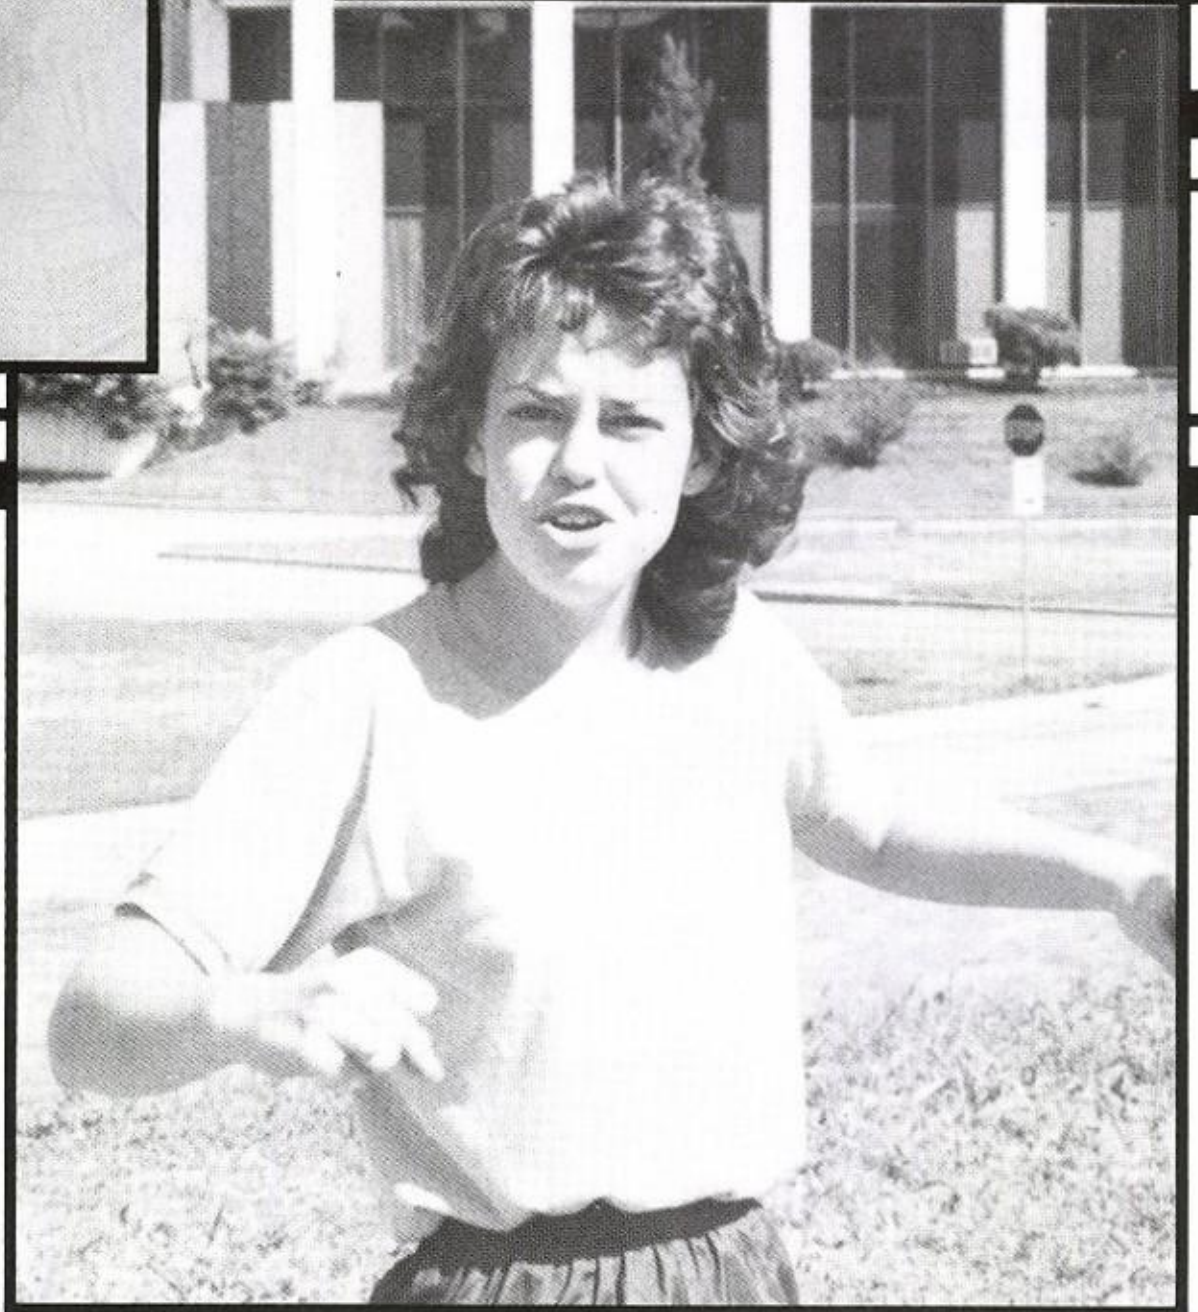

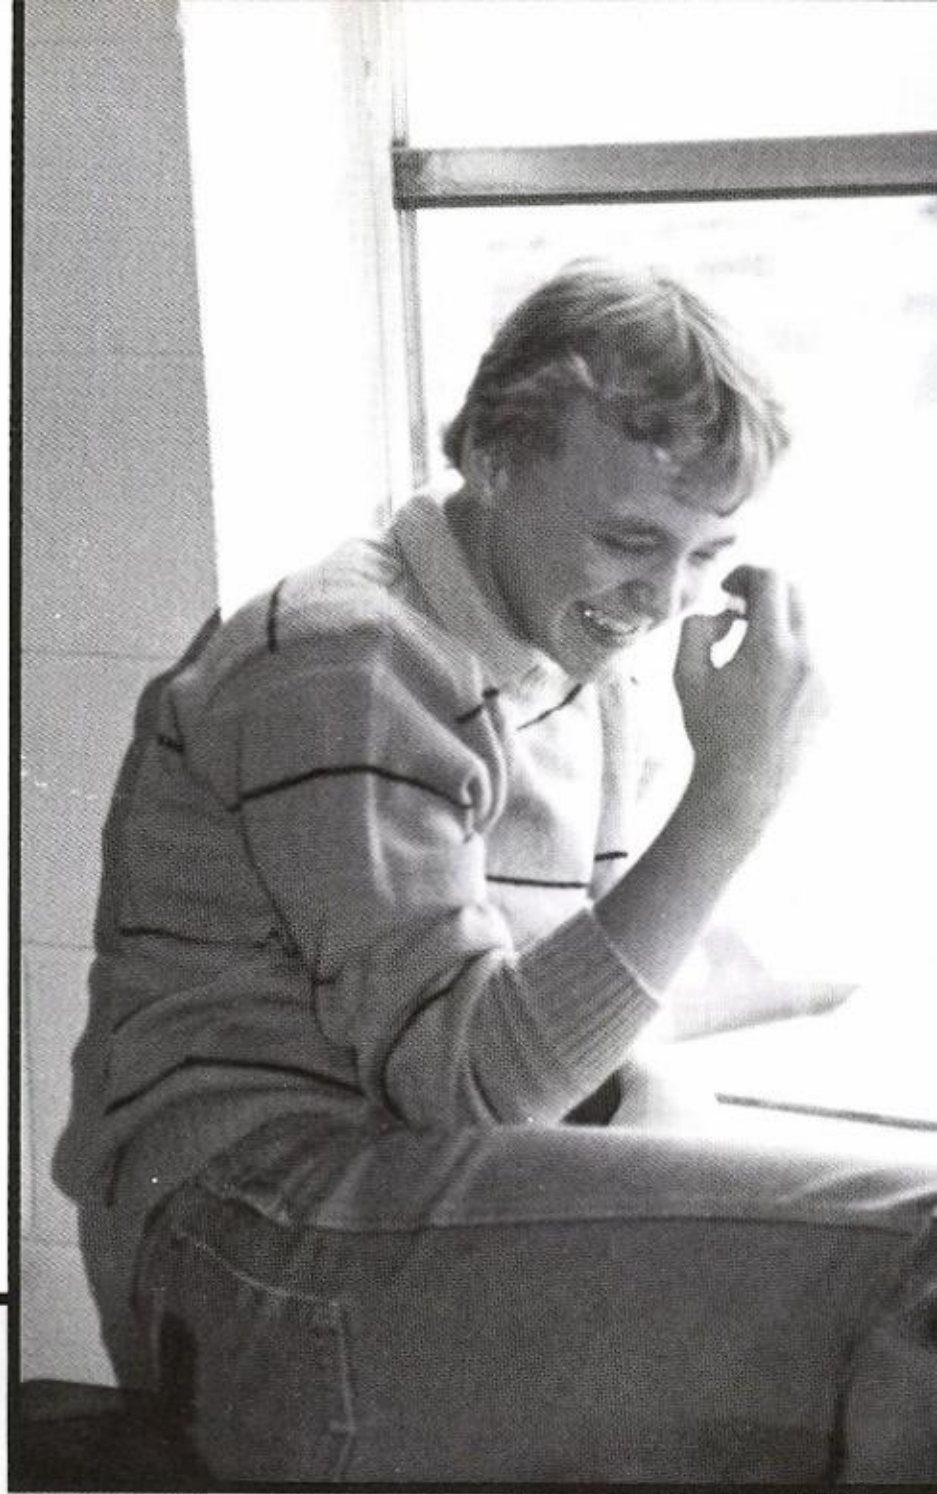

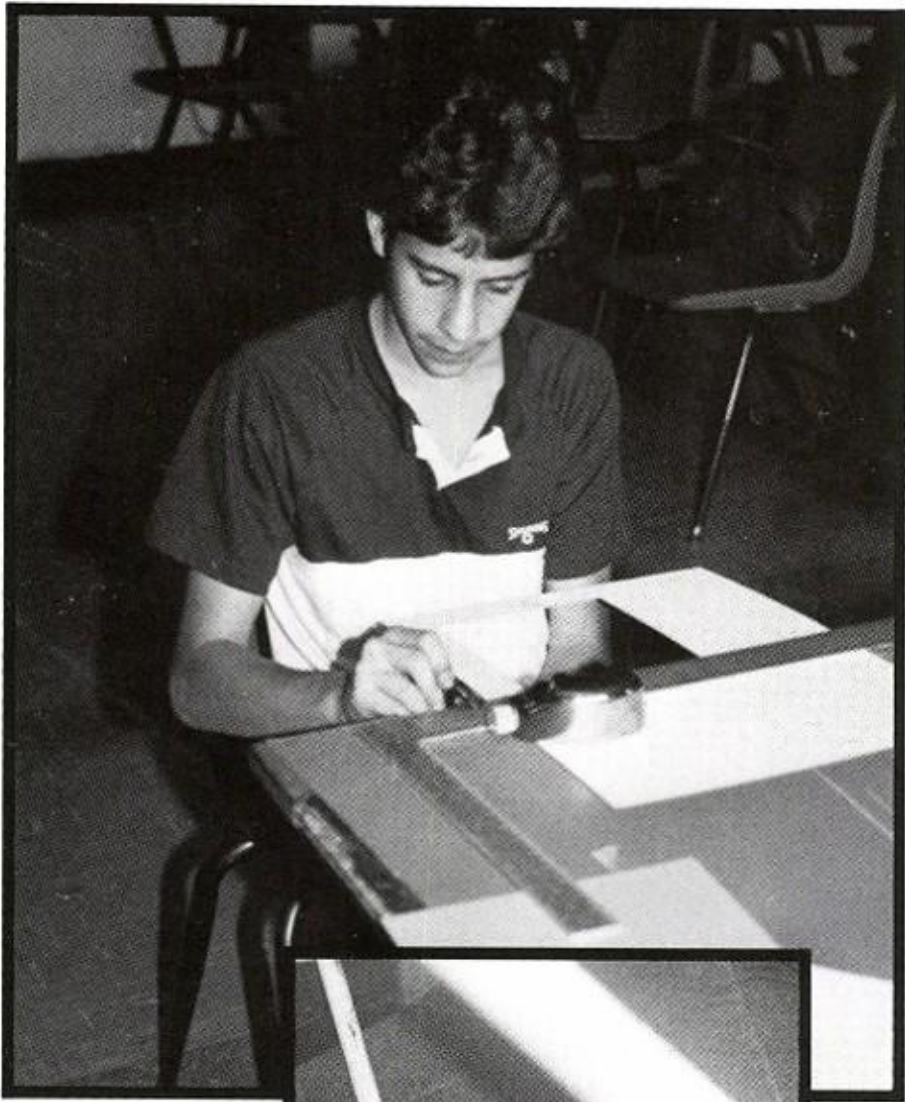

The J.V. game was tied when Ty Howorth threw a pass to Steven Cashion, who ran 65 yards for a touchdown.

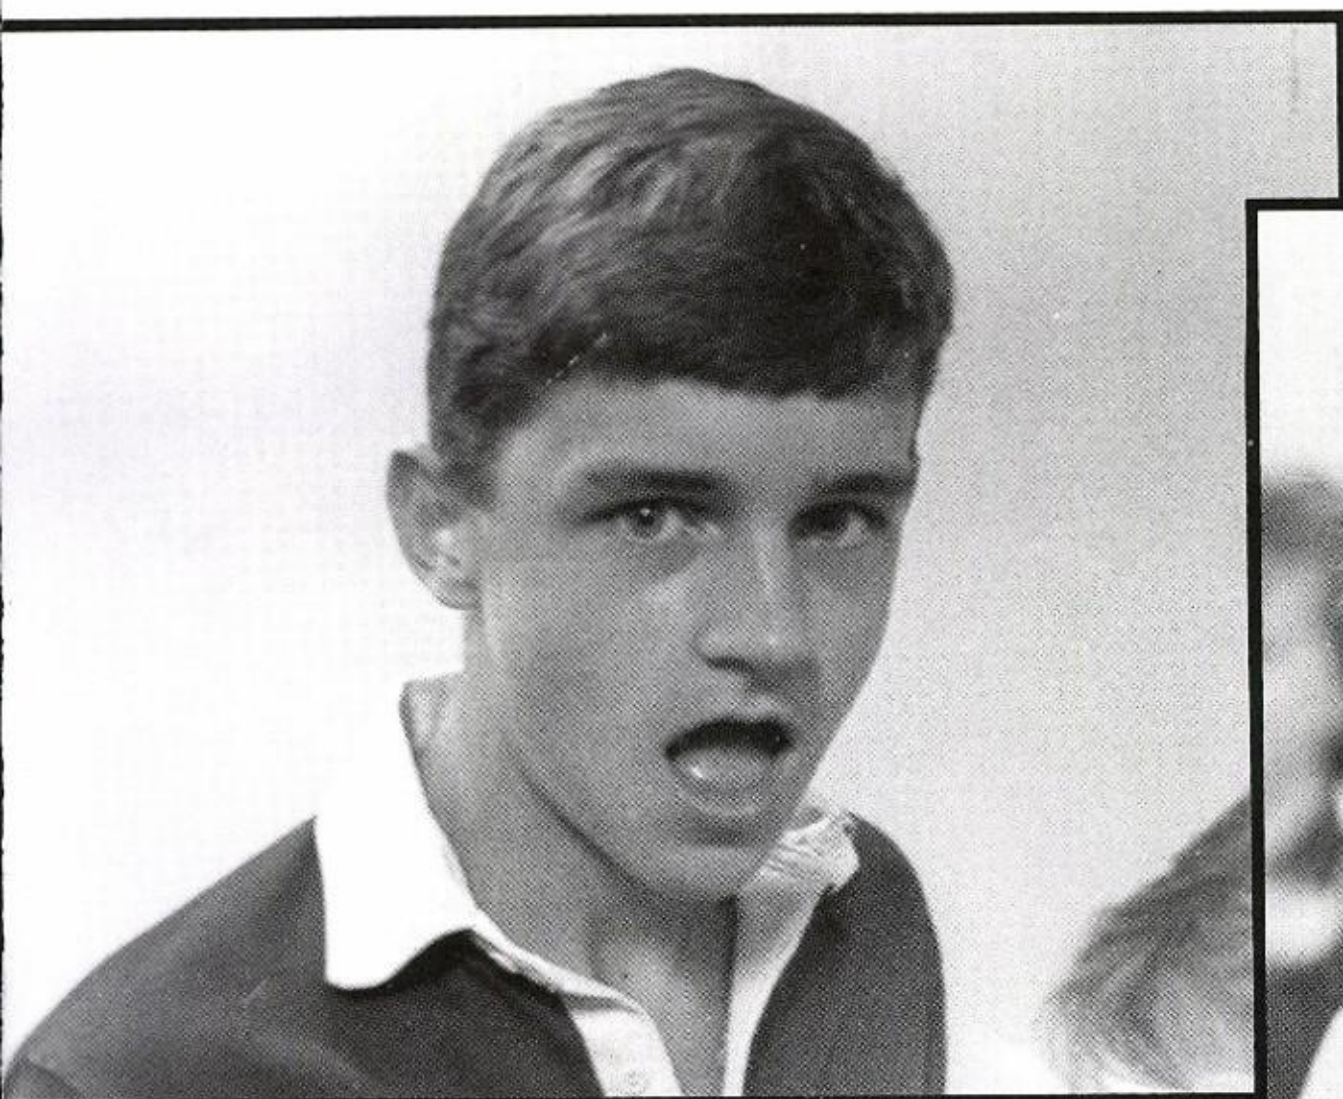

The most outstanding defensive players were Tommy Haynes and Ross Sanders. "I am looking forward to a great year next time with many of the same players," says Coach Callihan, the J.V. coach.

The Varsity football team played Waco for our Homecoming game, and won 28 to 18. "Probably the toughest game we've had all year," says Coach Gober. "They were very good, and I was real proud of the team because it was the first time we've really been tested."

PEOPLE

Sometimes it feels like I'm out here pushing Banging my head against the wall
And I wonder where You are I'm so alone
It all seems so ordinary Just marking time without reason It's so hard to be here feeling all alone
But when I close my eyes
I know You are here, near me again
And when I close my eyes
You feel the prayer I breathe
I hear you say my name
I'm not alone
I see the problem very clearly

It's a tug-of-war in my soul
Between choosing to believe
Or feeling alone
My heart is telling me not to worry
But my head isn't yielding
It insists on feeling left all alone

But when I close my eyes
I know You are here, near me again
And when I close my eyes
You feel the prayer I breathe
I hear You say my name
I'm not alone
"I'm Not Alone"

Senior, Todd Wilson, son of Latrice Wilson, was voted Mr. Calvary this year. Todd, honor roll president, started on both the football and basketball teams, as well as performing in Vocal Performance Class. He plans on going to college and majoring in sports management.

We are pilgrims in a strange land
 We are so far from our homeland
 With each passing day it seems so clear
 The world will never want us here
 We're not welcome in this world of wrong

SPORTS

Alone on the sidelines without any guidelines
 You've been running too fast with no place to go
 You got no direction, you gotta set your affection
 On the things that can bring you right back in the flow

You got to run for the prize
 Don't look over your shoulder
 Gotta keep your eyes
 On the straight and narrow Gotta run for the prize
 There's no time to be wandering

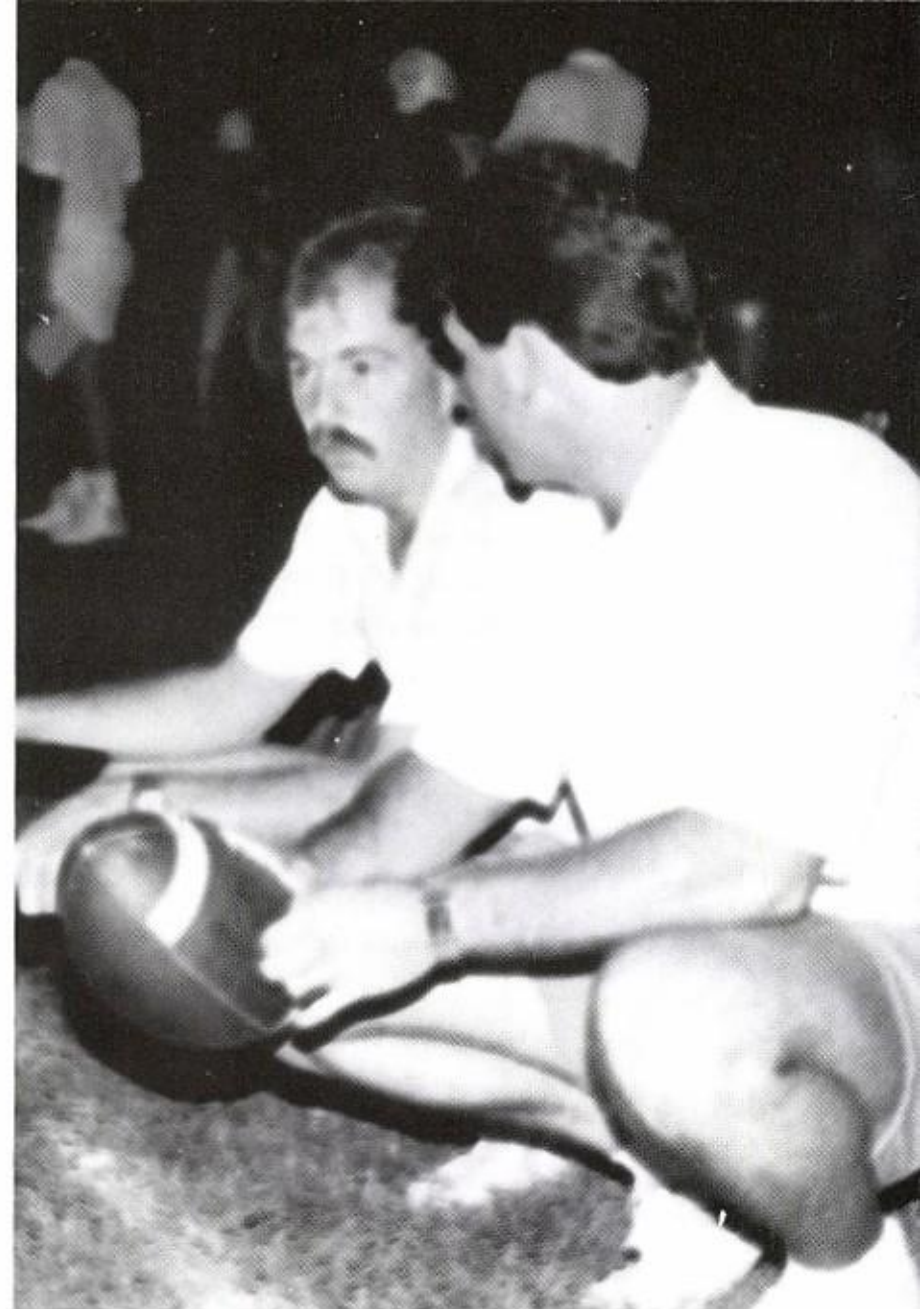

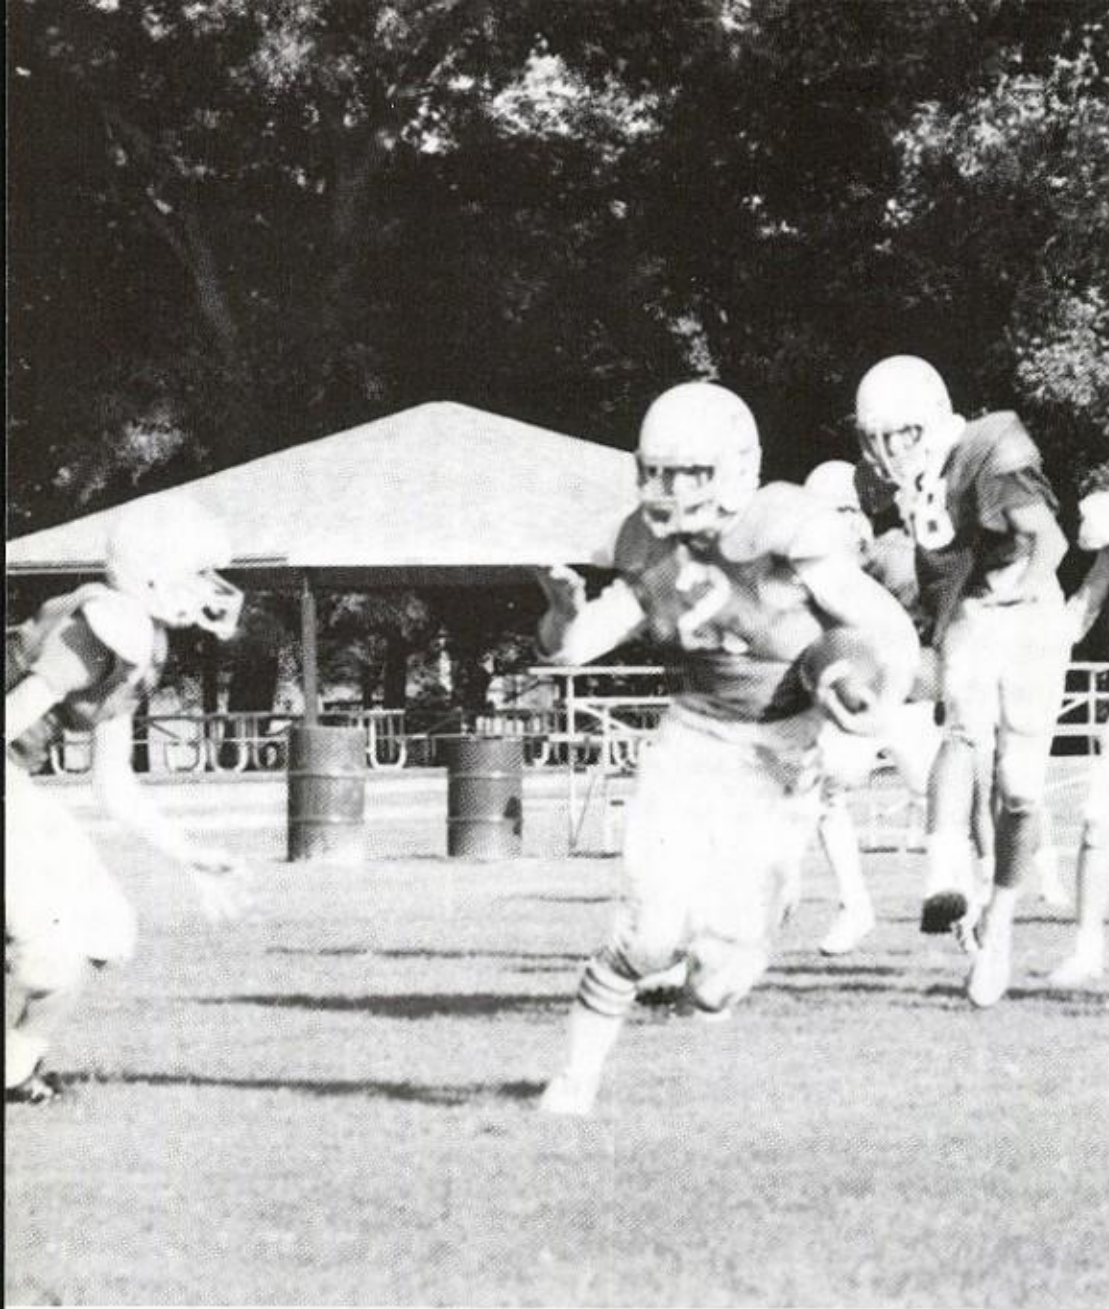

Gotta make your way
 Just as straight as an arrow

You may be weary but you gotta be leary
 When somebody says that you will never finish the race
 They can discourage but don't lose your courage
 You gotta narrow the margin and keep up the pace

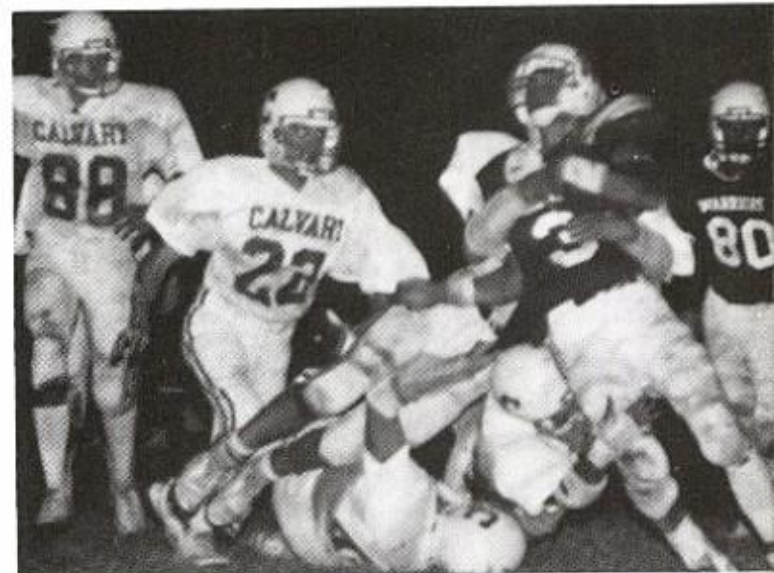

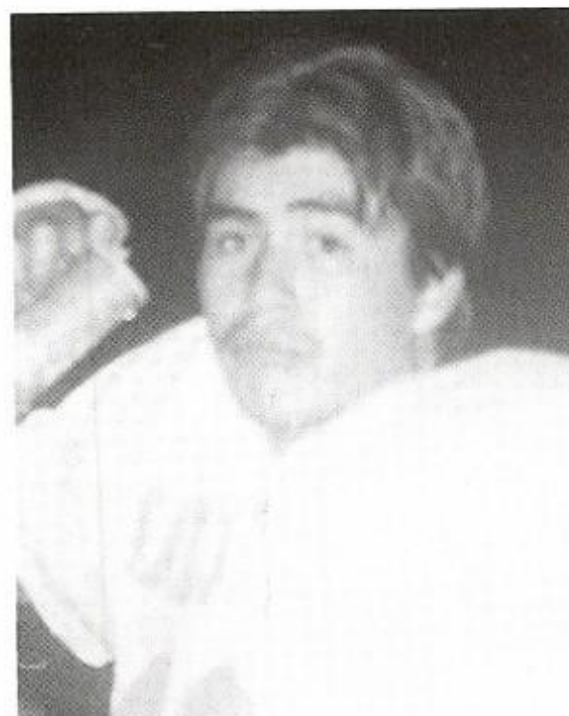

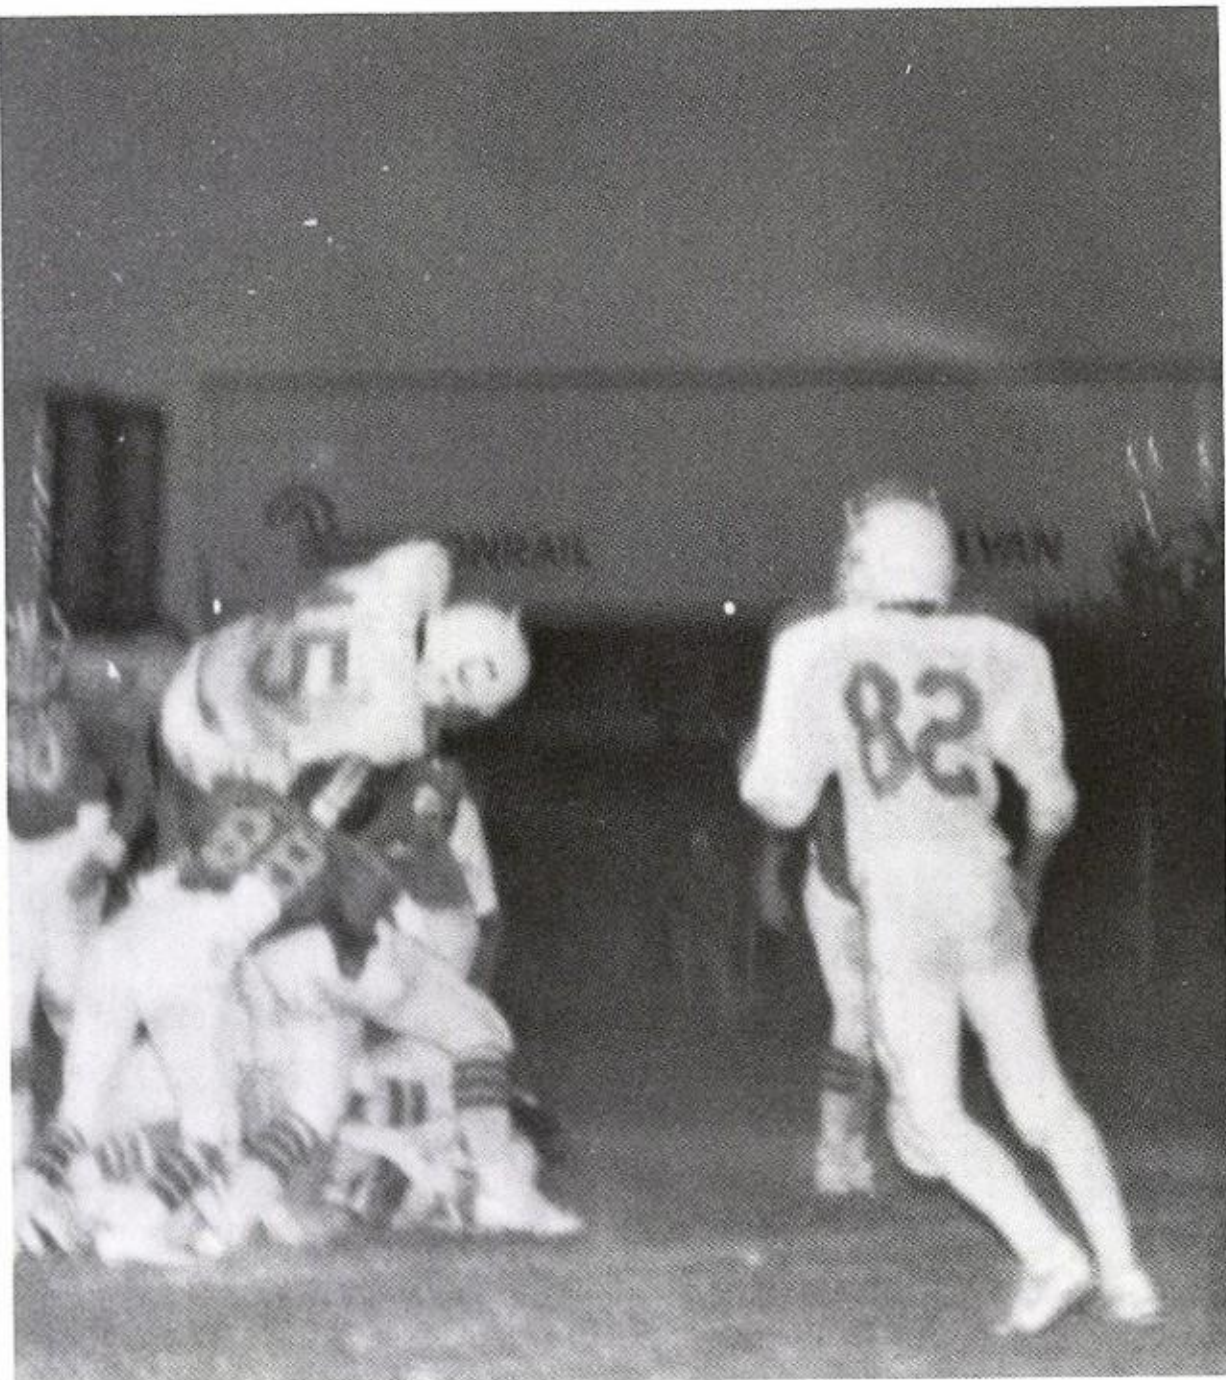

Gotta lay aside every weight and run the race that's before us
 If we grow weary and faint, the Father, He will restore us.

Long distance run from darkness
Headed into the sun
And it seems like eternity
Till this race is won Soul and spirit weak and weary Strength was almost gone
When a soothing gentle breeze Carried me further on

I've got my second wind, Spirit's coming
again
I've got a new revelation of the King of Kings
Found my second wind,
I feel my strength returning again
Returning again

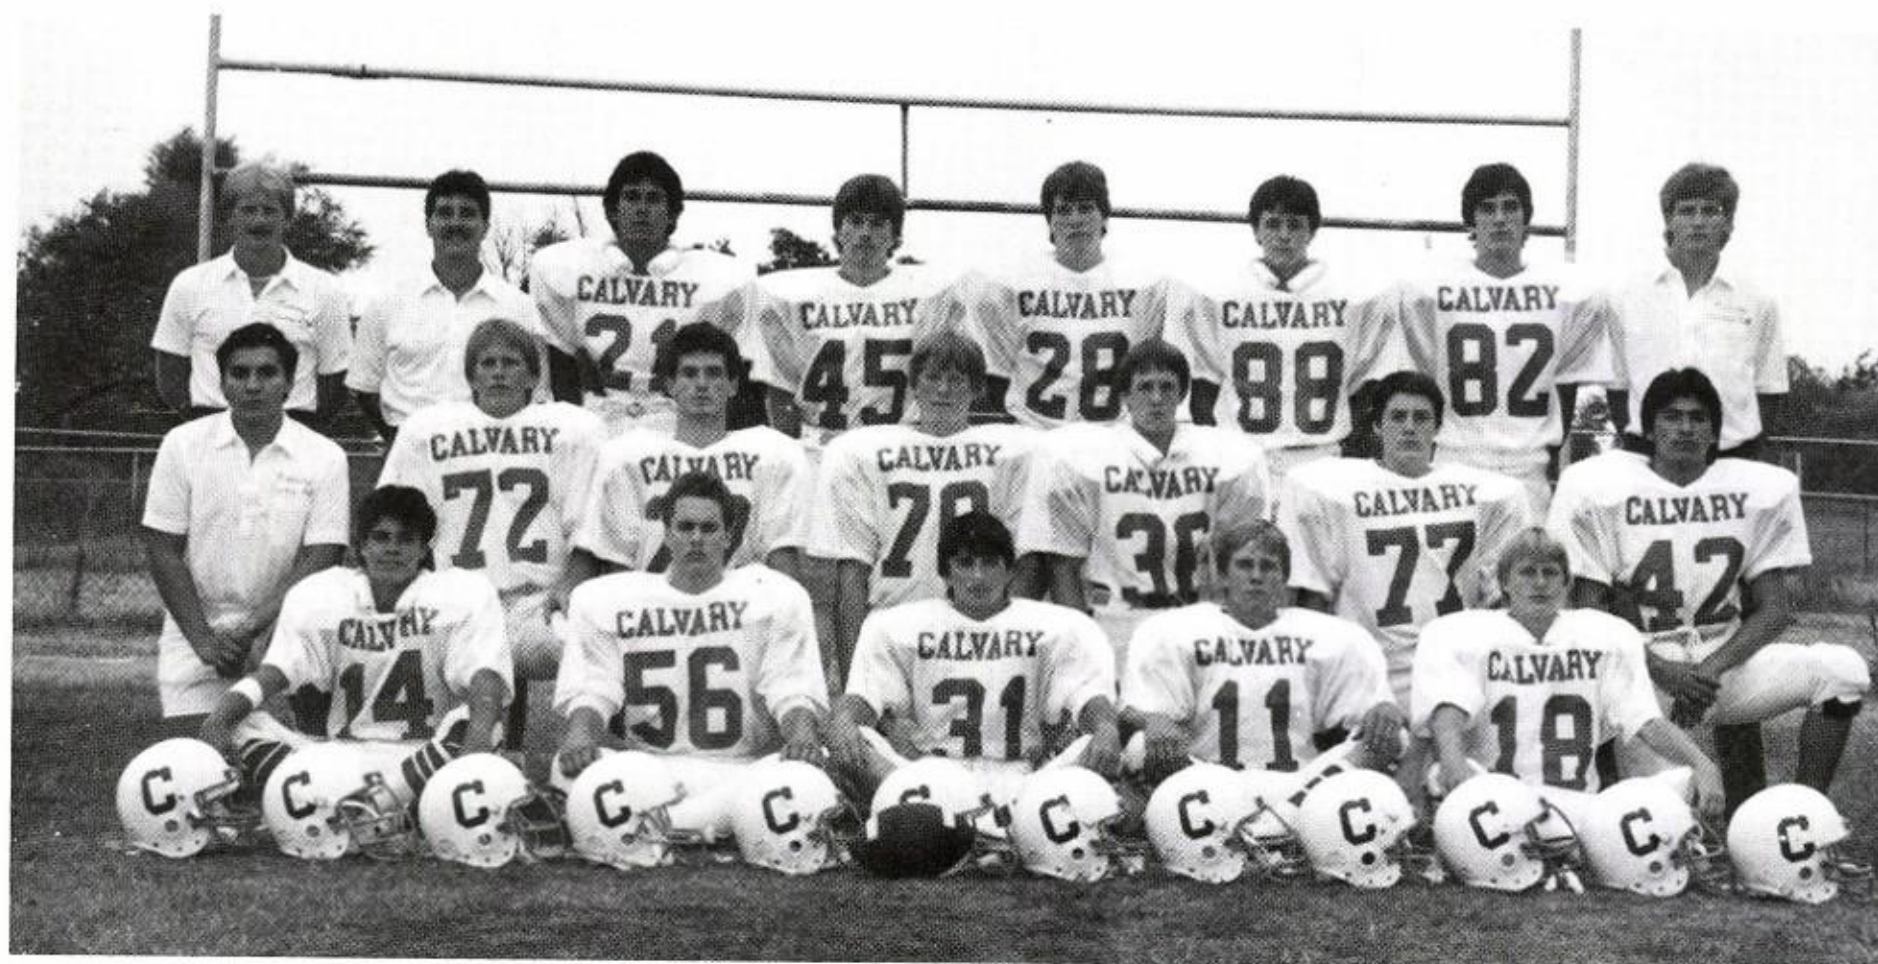

Through the desert night in darkness
Racing toward the light
There were too many hills to climb
Too many battles to fight

Then distant lights were calling Beaconed me as a guest
When I found the oasis there
I entered into a rest

Just when I thought I couldn't run any longer-
I got my second wind Just when I thought I'd never be any stronger-
I got my second wind
Just when I thought that I would fall into darkness-
I got my second wind
Just when I thought that I would fail every test-
I got my second wind

Not by might, not by power
But by my Spirit says the Lord
Not by might, not by power
But by my Spirit says the Lord

Sometimes fears can hide your vision
The loss of purpose chains you down
You think I've forgotten all you're dreaming of
But how can I forget the one I love

Not by might, not by power
But by my Spirit says the Lord
Not by might, not by power

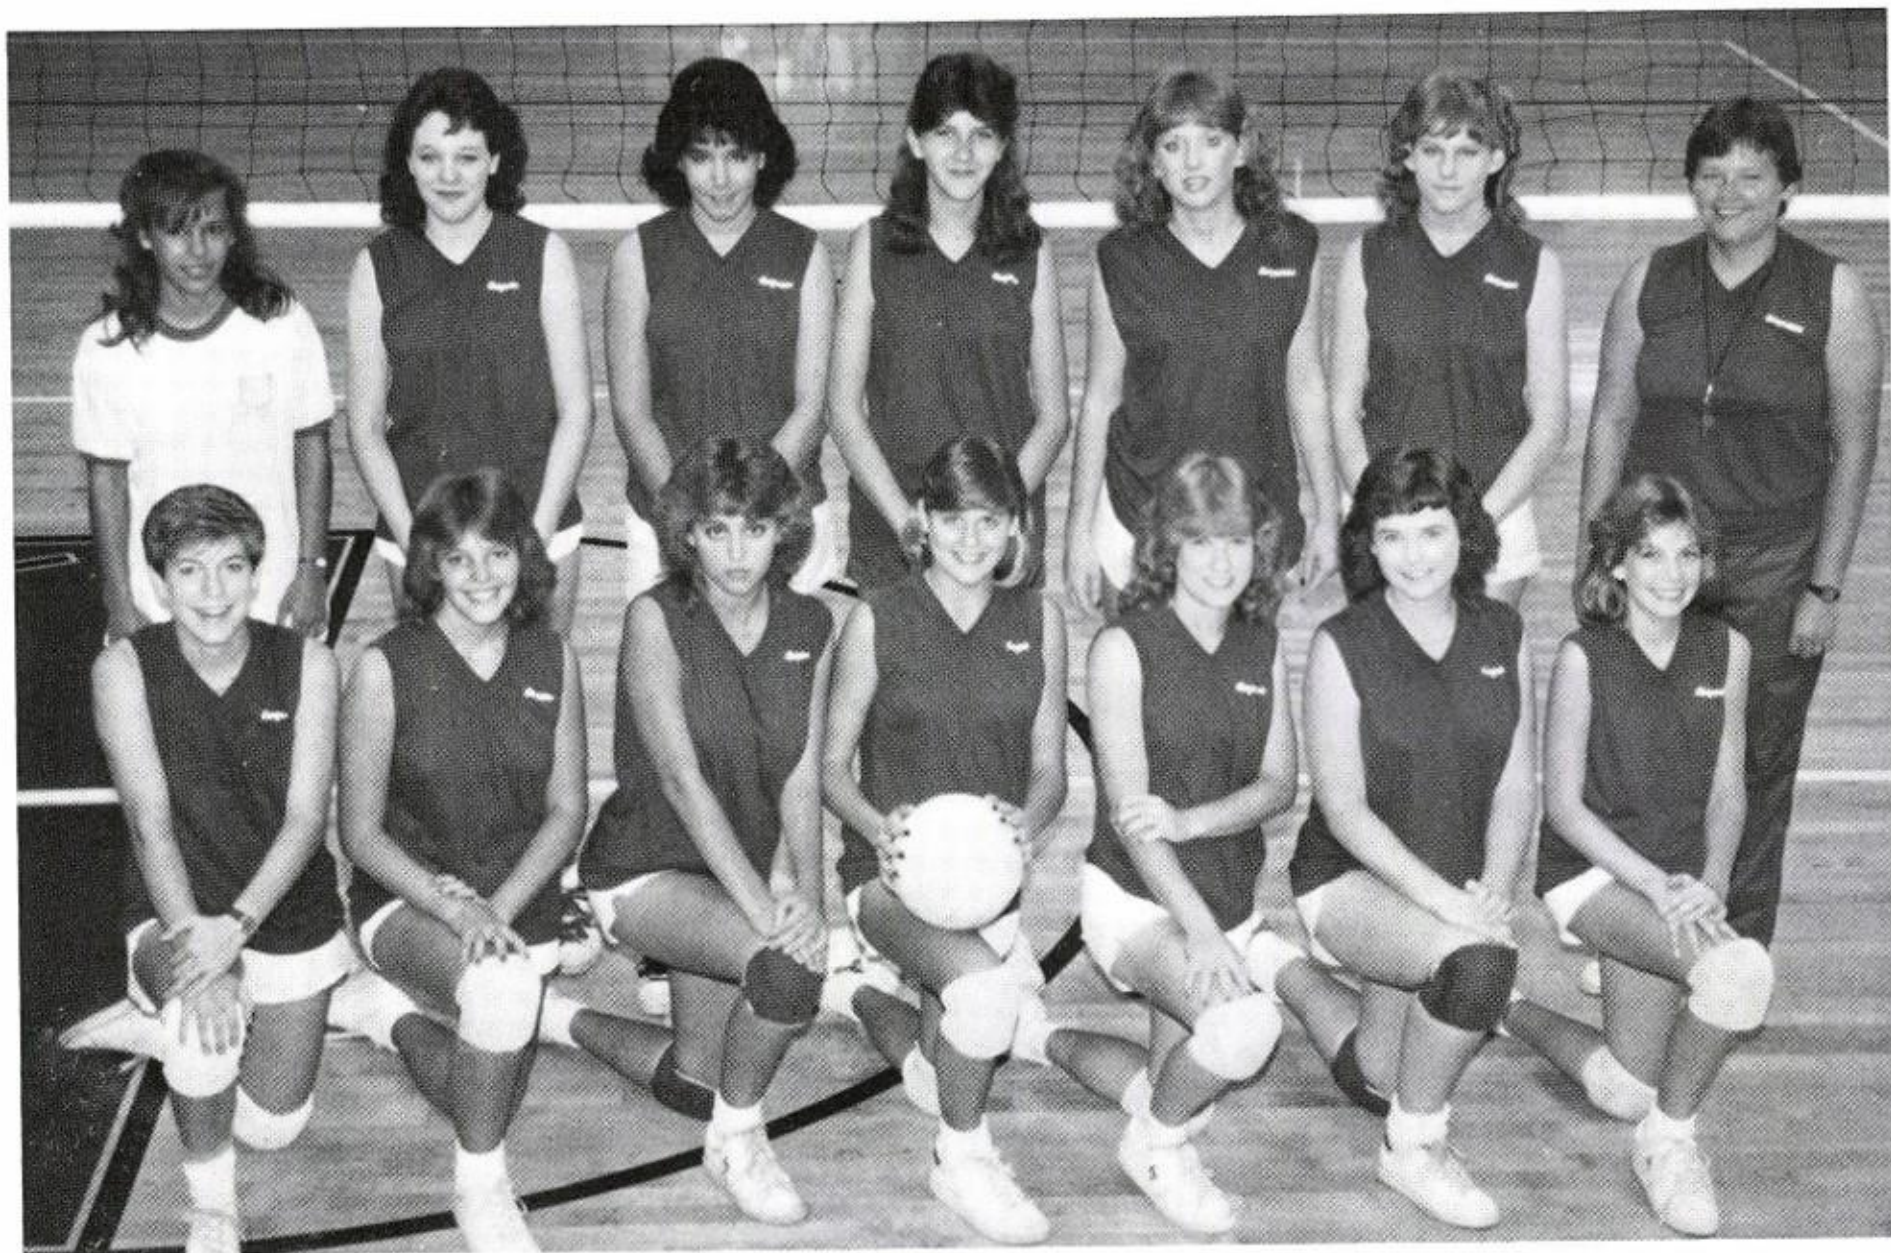

But by my Spirit says the Lord

These mountains will be removed I'll build my temple in you
And what I've promised
Shall be done

A word from the coach

This year's volleyball team was a very special team. The verse in Hebrews 12:11 describes what was seen in these girls. "No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it." (NIV) The girls gave 150% of themselves and showed, in the tournament, that if you give all of yourself to Christ, He will indeed bless.

The team consisted of 13 very special young ladies. I really enjoyed getting to coach these girls. They hold a special place in my heart.

"This was a special team from the start. We jumped into the season with very little preparation. I never had a team with so much diversity in experience, some with a lot and some with none. Also this team had more diversity in personalities and home background and yet the Holy Spirit molded this group into a unit that could be productive. To see the team to begin to understand that Jesus deserves their best was real satisfying. It was a neat thing to watch."

Elementary Boys

"In a season in which our high school guys went undefeated, in which our high school girls had their best season ever, and in which both jr. high teams had excellent records, this little known group of guys had their own winning season. They are, from left to right: Scott Maywald, Marc Gonzales, Rudy Martinez, Max McDaniel, Matt Shockley, Micheal Metcalf, Tommy Maddox, Chris Parker, Ray Henslee, Jon David Carrier, Brian Cruz, Jason Hester, Danny Ramos, Aaron Anthony.

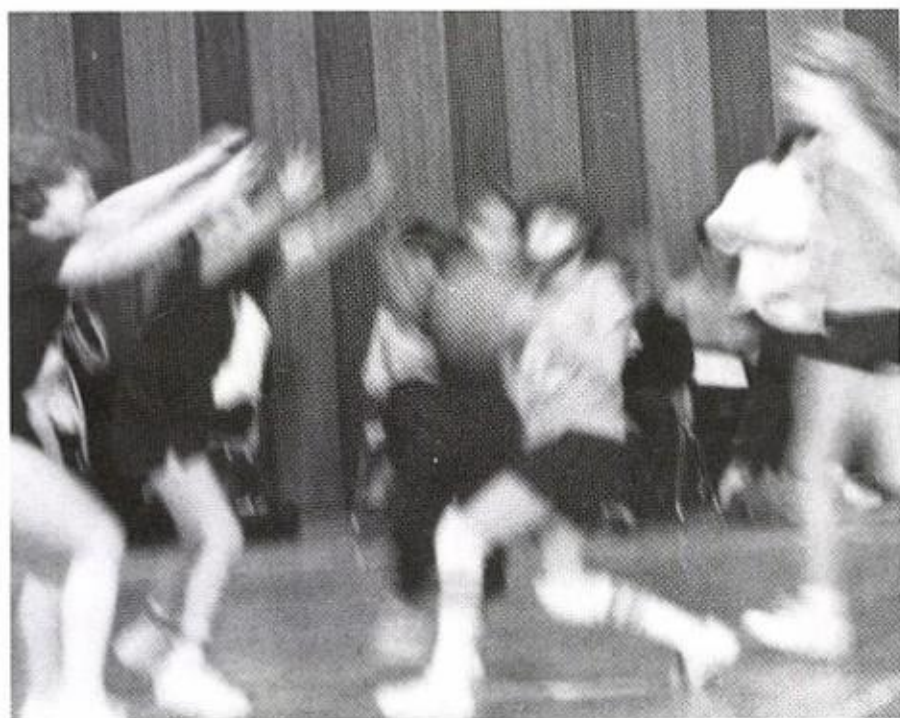

"These guys are to be recommended for eagerly receiving everything that I had to teach them about basketball, as little as that is. I regret not having more to teach them, or not adequately teaching them what I did know, because there is so much potential in these fellows that I feel like I may have kept them from developing as much as they could have.

"I suggest that you all keep an eye on these young men; you'll be seeing some of them making big achievements, both on and off the court. Guys, I challenge you to watch yourselves, and not to forget what we're trying to teach you here at Calvary: it's in Jesus that we live and have our being and without Him we can do nothing; if you turn our back on Him, you'll be turning your back on life and on your potential. Don't waste what God is giving you here."

With Love,

Elementary Girls

"Girls . . . well, you did it. You won first place in our league by winning all eight of your games. You have had your serious moments, you have had your silly moments, you have had your frustrating moments, and you have had your moments of glory. But above all, you have been a team working hard together. I pray that it was your desire to be pleasing to the Lord. I know it was mine. For it would all have been a waste of time if it had not been pleasing to Him.

I am proud of you, and hope you all continue to play basketball throughout your school years. You will be an asset to any Calvary team. God bless you and I love you."

Hot restless night, headed for trouble
You stand alone in the crowd
You know His love but they think you're crazy
But don't be afraid to tell them
'cuz they're just dying to know They're blindly falling in a black hole
And you're just watching them go
Don't let them go

Hang tight, hang tough, don't let them sway you
'cuz you've got the flame of life in your heart
They talk you down but still they'll keep watching

And where you see nothing but blackness
There shines the brightest light
He never said it would be easy
You've got to get up and fight
C'mon tonight

Give 'em all you've got tonight
Give 'em all you've got tonight They're falling, they're dropping left and right
So give them all you've got tonight

CAPTAIN

This has been a fruitful year for Calvary's cheerleaders. The girls have excelled in their abilities to perform as cheerleaders, and more important as Christian leaders of our school. All of the girls worked very diligently for each and every game.

Prov. 16:3 says, "Commit our works to the Lord," and I believe each girl has done just that. We do not perform for vain glory, but we work to glorify our Heavenly Father.

Sometimes it's hard for me to understand Why we pull away from each other so easily
Even though we're all walking the same road
Yet we build dividing walls
Between our brothers and ourselves
But I don't care what label you may wear
If you believe in Jesus, you belong with me
The bond we share is all I care to see
And we can change the world forever If you'll just join with me, join and sing

You're my brother, you're my sister
So take me by the hand
Together we will work until He comes
There's no foe that can defeat us
When we're walking side by side

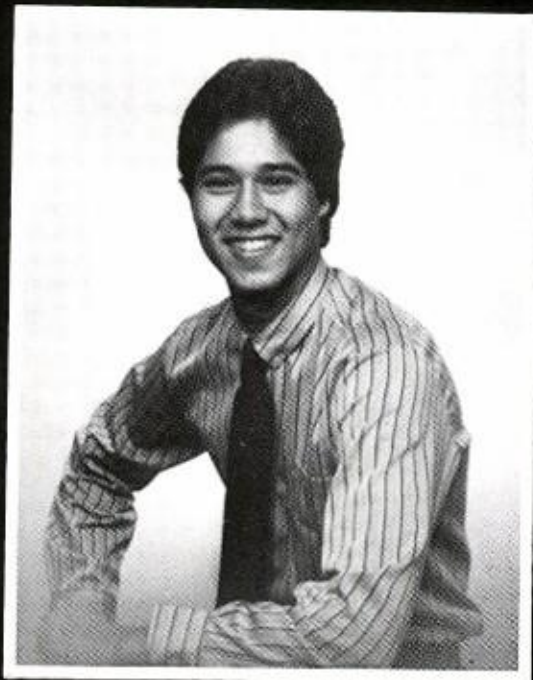

And as long as there is love
We will stand

The day will come when we will be as one
And with a mighty voice together we will proclaim
That Jesus, Jesus is King
It will echo through the earth
It will shake the nations
And the world will see

You're my brother, you're my sister
So take me by the hand
Together we will work until He comes
There's no foe that can defeat us
When we're walking side by side
And as long as there is love
We will stand

Well, I feel it's for real

And I sense your offense
To hear what I'm speakin' of

I should've done it a long time ago
I should've given my life to the Lord
I should've done it a long time ago

Things change and things range

From the good to the bad
So watch out, don't get caught
Don't give your life to a fad

You should've given your life to the Lord
You should've done it a lone time ago

Got myself in this situation
I'm not sure about
Climbing in where there's temptation
Can I get back out
I never can quite find the answer
The one I want to hear
The one that justifies my action
Says the coast is clear
Something on the outside Says to jump on in
But something on the inside
Is telling me again

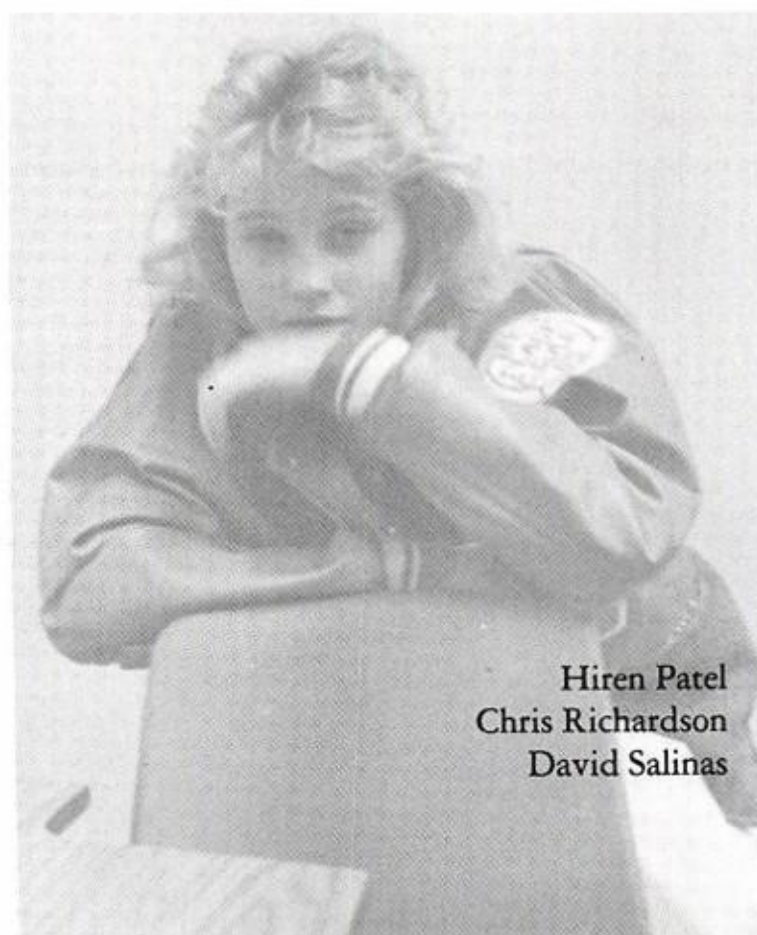

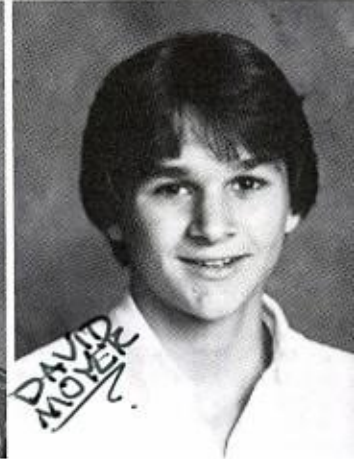

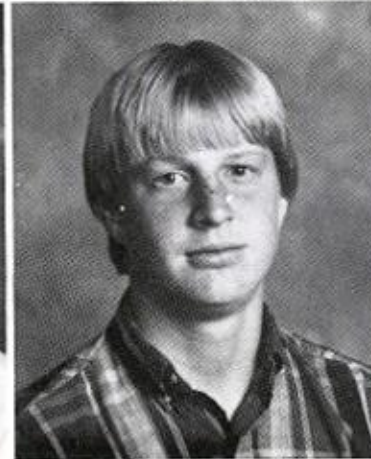

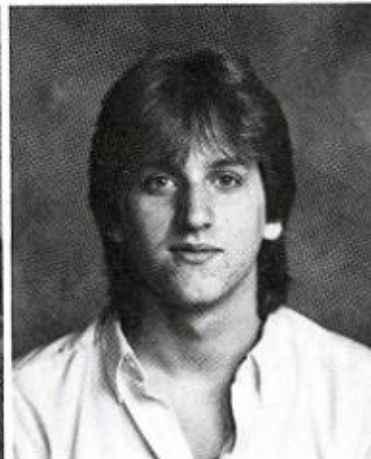

Better wise up
Better think twice
Never leave room for compromise
You better wise up Better get smart

Appeared to be a good plan at the time
Seemed so harmless, no big crime
The choice was mine and I made it but I didn't choose life
What I wanted was all I could see Desire dangled in front of me I lived on the brink of destruction 'cause I didn't choose life

While the truth comes to free you to lift and console you
Lies will cut you deeper than a two-edged knife
When the wrong way that seems right begins to control you
Don't let bad decisions make you pay the price
Cut the power of death and choose life

Each bad choice chipped away my soul
Soon survival became by goal

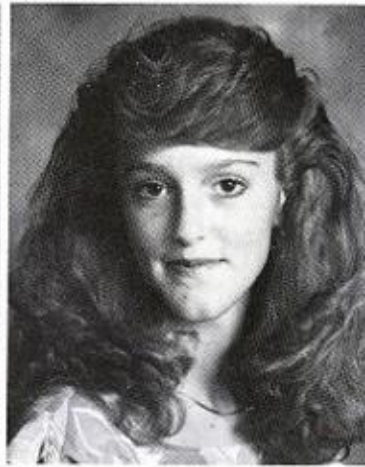

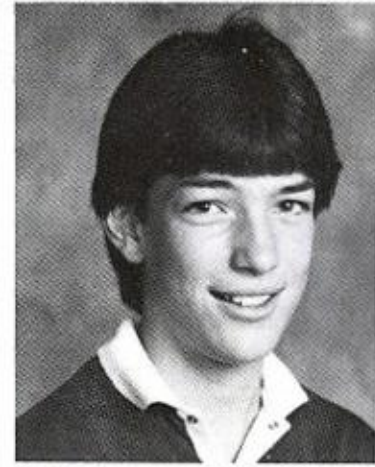

I ended up split in pieces 'cause I didn't choose life
The sound of judgment was hard to hear
Till the facts came in loud and clear It's either one way or the other and I'd better
choose life

While the truth comes to free you to lift and
console you
Lies will cut you deeper than a two-edged knife While the wrong way that seems right begins to control you
Don't let bad decisions make you pay the price
Cut the power of death and choose life

Ninety feet tall and nine feet wide Solid gold — "It must be God."
They were told
"When you hear the music play
Fall on your knees and begin
To pray"
They were told
But when the trumpet sounded
The whole world bowed Three men stood there all alone —
They said
Not gonna bow to your idols
Not gonna bow, Oh no
Not gonna bow to your idols
I won't bow down
All Bobby wanted is to just fit in
To be accepted he must act like them
He said no

"Everybody does it — so what's the Fuss?

Come on Bobby — won't cha be like us?"

He said no

And when the pressure came

He watched them bow

Bobby stood there all alone —

He said

We won't have to give in to it

We can choose to go against

You think you've gone too far If only you could see this pen scribbling down my heart

I'll be waiting
I may be young or old and gray

Lately I've been winning battles left and right
But even winners can get wounded in the fight People say that I'm amazing, strong beyond my years
But they don't see inside of me; I'm hiding all the tears.

They don't know that I go running home when I fall down
They don't know who picks me up when no one is around
I drop my sword and cry for just awhile
'Cause deep inside this armor, the warrior is a child.

Unafraid because his armor is the best

But even soldiers need a quiet place to rest
People say that I'm amazing, never face retreat
But they don't see the enemies that lay me at His feet.

They don't know that I go running home when
I fall down.
They don't know who picks me up when no one
is around.
I drop my sword and cry for just awhile.

When your afraid that you might get burned
Where do you turn

You've got to know who to
Who not to listen to You've gotta know who to
Who not to listen to They're gonna hit you from all sides
Better make up your mind Who to, who not to lisen to

How can you learn what is true and just How to know who to trust
Here comes a man with a scam to sell

Daddy will You tell me a story
About Your Kingdom and Your Glory
Of that time long ago
And all those people you know,
So well

You know Dad, I like the one about the Children who were lost in that wilderness
And how they learned to trust You How You guided them through To the Promised Land

Will You tell me again about that reason
For everything You've done
Would You call me a son

I know it's getting late Dad
But could you just tell me one more story I'd really like to hear that one about the Baby Jesus

Tell me again about the manger
The child who came as a stranger
And how he grew up to be
The one to set free
The world

Tell me all about the things He did Healing the sick and loving little kids
How He died on the cross
For the sins of the lost

Jesus loves me I know it's true
 Because He died for me and He died for you
 When I think of all the pain that He went through I want the world to know and I want to shout the news
 Jesus loves me this I know
 It's not just the Bible that tells me so I can feel it — feel it in my soul
 Jesus loves me this I know
 Jesus loves me how can it be that the only Son of God should care for me
 Take away my sin and set me free Take my life and make it all it's meant to be.
 Jesus loves me and He loves you, too

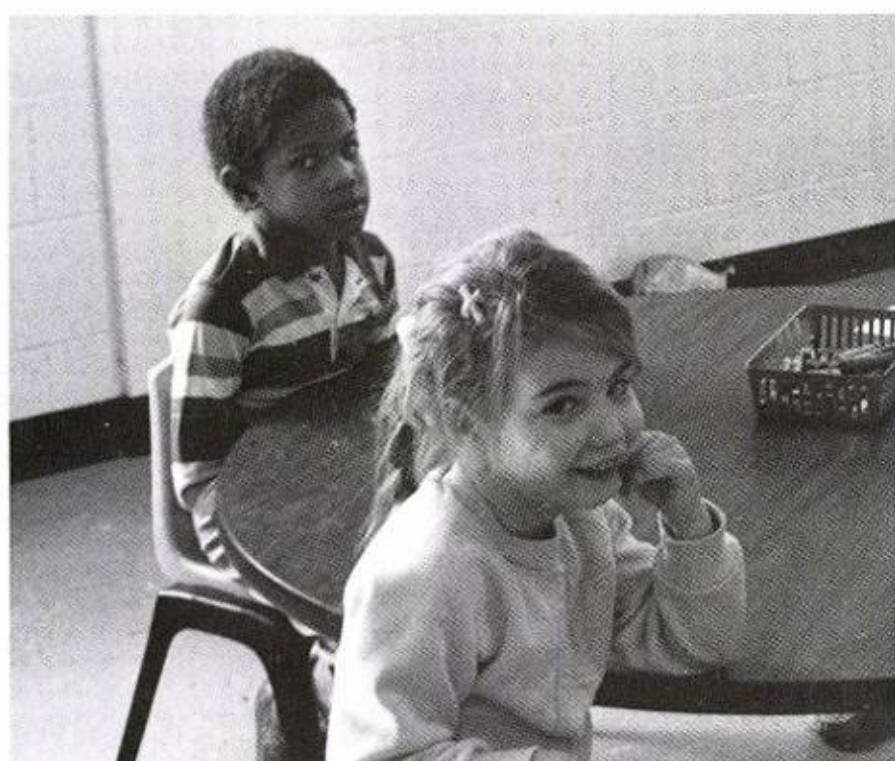

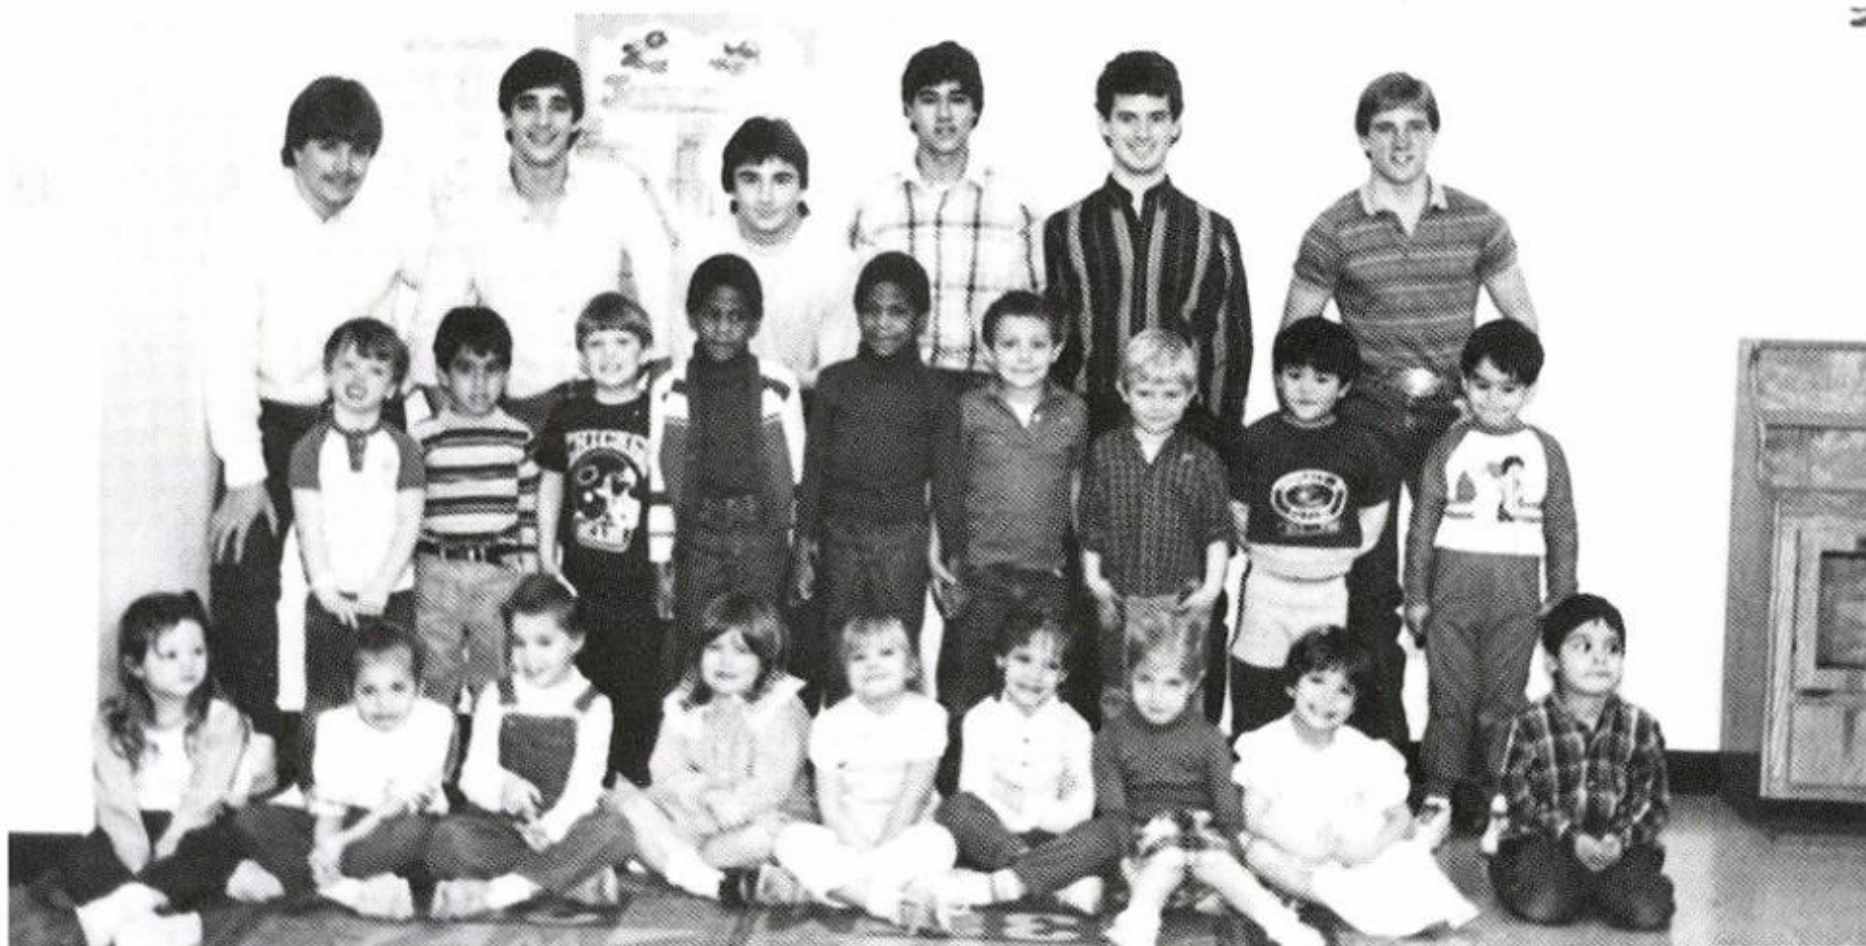

You can't understand it all
 Just believe it's true
 He'll take away your old heart
 And give one that's new You'll feel the walls come down as his love comes breaking through

There's an empty place inside me that You're the treasure of my life, there's

I could never say goodbye

I remember lonely restless days
Going nowhere like a ship inside

Then Your gentle voice whispered to Now love has let me know

I'm home at last, oh Lord

I could never say goodbye when I need you like I do
There's an empty place inside me that

Once I thought that love was just a

But I can't deny this miracle that's found me
Now I'm sure from this moment on You're the only one I'll ever need You're the one my Lord

And I know You'll never let me
I'll never let you go away

I could never say goodbye when

Niké Staff

Pura lator Currior

Hello. You're almost at the end of our book. I hope you have enjoyed it. It was five months ago that I took the raw bunch of recruits that you see on these pages and turned them into a well oiled machine. Well, okay, it had a few rusty parts; all right then, a lot of rusty parts! But I believe this Nike staff did a first rate job, despite its sometimes poor leadership (e.g. me). It was my intention, one that I hope these working with me have picked up on and share, to minister to you, to challenge you to "Take a stand for Jesus," to "wise up," to "beat the (world's) system," to "choose life," to "run for the prize," to "turn your backs on the gods of men." I chose to do this through music in the hope that one of these songs would be your favorite and that you might take notice. Much thought and prayer went into which songs to use in an attempt to convey a special message to each one of you. So if you haven't really read the lyrics throughout this book, I challenge you to do so, carefully and prayerfully, and to ask yourself whether they're talking to you. It's my hope and prayer that you all will "take a stand for Jesus" and that you will become "more than conquerors."

Sincerely,
Mr. Ivers, Advisor

I used to dream of being famous Wanted my name to be a household word Well I thought that it would thrill me then I saw that it could kill me Now it strikes me as a little absurd . . .

. . . used to dream of being a rich man
 Yeah, I swore I'd have it all some day Once you taste it you will find
 That it isn't worth a dime
 Till you're free enough to give it away

As the world keeps turning around You either learn to bend with the wind or it knocks you down Turn your back on the gods of men
 And the Lord who is true
 Will give life back to you again
